Your 2015-2016 FAFSA was selected for a review process called verification. The law states that before awarding Federal Student Aid, we are required to confirm certain information that you reported on your FAFSA. This worksheet must be completed and any required documents or processes completed before an award letter will be sent to you. If you have questions regarding verification, please contact the UTTC Financial Aid Office as soon as possible so that your financial aid will not be delayed.
